

GOD LOVES YOU SIGN

RISK ASSESSMENT (reviewed August 2026)

| Hazard                     | Level of riskL/M/H | Likelihood | Precautions                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|----------------------------|------------------------|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Putting up/taking down | H                      | L          | At least 3 people should be involved.One person holding the ladder,One person keeping rope in tensionOne person guiding the sign on the ladder.During the process, the immediate area must be closed off to the public |
| Sign falling down          | H                      | L          | The sign is held up1. Underneath,2. By bolts at the top and3. by rope at the topAll 3 of these must be regularly checked when changing the sign.Also check during particularly stormy weather.                     |
| Changing a name            | H                      | L          | Ladder must be held, or firmly wedged in place.Person on the ladder must be aware of ladder health and safety training                                                                                                             |